The House, by a vote of 172 to 160, passed the bill providing revenue for Porto Rico. fixing a tariff upon Porto Rican goods imported into the states, equal to 15 per cent of that imposed by the Ungley law, to remain for two years; the bill was immediately reported with amendments to the Senate. The President sent to Congress a message suggesting that the money al-ready collected from this source be turned to use in Porto Rico for public purposes; a bill was introduced forthwith by Chaira bill was introduced forthwith by Chairman Cannon and passed after a very brief debate—162 to 107. The Senate passed the bill to establish government for Hawati, and proceeded with the consideration of the Quay case and the conference report on the currency bill. President McKinley went to New York. Secretary Root left Washington for a trip to Cuba. The United States Court of Claims denied Admiral Dewey's contention that his force was inferior to that of Spain at Manila. Filipino insurgents ambushed a party of American solders; others were later ambushed by an American force and badly punished. The flour trust was placed in the hands of a receiver. W. H. King and J. F. Hammond were nominated for Congress by the democrats and republicans of Utah, respectively. Representative Epes of Virginia died in Washington as a result of a surgical operation. Foreign Affairs.

The Boer general, Cronje, together with about 4,300 men, surrendered to Lord Roberts, after a siege of over a week in the Free State; Gen. Buller defeated the Boen investing Ladysmith and effected the relief of that city; there was unparalleled re-joicing in London over the latter event; in minor fighting in Cape Colony the Boers were forced northward and the campaign were forced northward and the campaign began to assume a new character, as the burgher forces settled down to a strictly defensive campaign, showing signs of con-centration in northern Free State; there were unconfirmed reports of the relief of Mafeking. Lord Rosebery formally severed his connection with the English liberal par-ty. Fire seriously damaged the ordnance his connection with the English liberal party. Fire seriously damaged the ordnance works at Le Creusot, France. British troops on the Burmo-Chinese border killed sixty natives and burned 2,000 houses in punishment for the murder of two Englishmen. Spain conferred the Order of the Golden Fleece on Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany. An assassin in the streets of Caracas fired two shots ineffectually at President Castro of Venezuela. In the District.

The Commissioners sent to Congress a fa vorable report on the bill to reduce gradecrossings on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio road, disapproving the proposition of route to avoid the destruction of property values in that suburb; the board of trade took the same action in this respect, but disapproved the position for the District and the government to pay the road $1,-District schools was continued; the annual report of the superintendent of the schools was published. The District republicans held meetings and primaries for the selection of delegates to the national convention at Philadelphia. Frederick P. Lewis, former, District government, employed. a former District government employe killed himself. Ella Wracks, colored, indicted for the murder of Isaac Henderson, colored, pleaded guilty of manslaughter. Howard Perry, well known among the ath-ietes of Washington, died.

A Bald-Headed Man

Is said to be like a greyhound, because he makes a little hair (hare) go a great way, but do you know why they call some Doctors "quacks?" We should think it was because "quack" suggests a duck, and ducks have big bills. One of the correspondents of a country paper wrote to the editor to ask if "fits are hereditary," to which the editor replied: "Any small boy, compelled to wear out his father's old clothes, could tell you that they are not." The only thing that bald-headed men, doctors and editors have to do is that wheat is a good thing for everyhody to have; it is cheap; it looks strong; it usually cells above 80c, every year; it is safer than stocks, and does not require so much margin, $25.00 will margin 1,000 bu, of wheat 2½ points, and that much wheat will make you $10.00 every time wheat advances a cent a bushel. If you don't care for wheat we can handle your stock business just as well, only it requires a little more margin, 3 to 5 per cent ($30.00 to $50.00 on 10 shares). CONDENSED LOCALS.

The fire department was summoned to the house of Mrs. Carrie W. Payne, No. 235 2d street northeast, about 7 o'clock last night for a slight fire in a closet on the second floor that started from some un-known cause. About $10 damage was done. The property is insured.

Replying to a complaint made several days ago by Mr. Elias Raff of 1239 11th street southeast, that the street has not been swept for six months, the District Commissioners state that the failure to sweep the street has been due to the fact that the laying of the street railway thereon has prevented such work.
